Rogers said funds are available for practices including limestone and rock phosphate for which a soil test is required, as well as permanent type projects, and the county committee is recommending more permanent practices such as sod waterways, farm ponds, structures and pasture development. The fall season is a good time to complete this work, Rogers said.

The Soil Conservation Service, forestry personnel, farm adviser, and game biologist will cooperate in extending technical assistance when necessary.

In order to earn assistance an official request must be filed before the practice is started. Rogers said, and an approval must be given by the county committee. Also the work must be completed within a specified time according to all requirements and the farmer.

Rogers also reminded producers who have completed ACP practices prior to July 31, to stop at the ASICS office in Edwardsville by Aug. 12 to complete necessary reports so payment can be made. Producers who fail to complete these necessary reports by Aug. 12 will be canceled and they will receive no payment even though the practice may have been completed on the farm.

Miss Huelskamp All Smiles On Return from Contest

If she was disappointed, no one could tell it. For Lois Jean Huelskamp, Miss Granite City of 1966, returned home yesterday from the Miss Illinois Pageant in Quincy with a bundle of smiles—and without a doubt, some memorable experiences.

Mary Lee Inzerillo, 19, a sophomore at Quincy College, was named Miss Illinois Saturday night at the annual contest, based on beauty, talent and personality. The new queen, Miss Adams County, takes over the reign of Miss Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Edw. DeWaney and daughter; Earl Parsons and Ronald Turner, Roca Club; Mrs. Paul Oros and daughter, Renee; and James Hackney.

Miss Inzerillo, a five-foot, one-inch brunette, was the shortest of the 27 girls competing for the regal crown. On Friday night she won the swimming suit competition. An Englewood, Ill., resident, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Inzerillo of Elk Grove.

Meanwhile, back at a "branch" of the Miss Illinois contest, Granite City, a contingent of Jaycee boosters greeted Lois Huelskamp. Upon meeting her on Pontoon road, just south of Highway three, a motorcade through the town immediately followed.

Bethel Community Church, 19, and First Assembly of God, 6, competed in a fairly close event for the first two innings. At this time the score registered Bethel, 7, and Assembly, 5. But Community, baited 11 men in the third, while scoring seven of them. Bob Dawson knocked a double and two singles for Community, won 9-1. Mike Voorhes socked a round-tripper for the losing squad, 4-6.

The closest contest of the evening featured West 2nd St. Baptist against Niedringhaus Methodist. Baptist, with a record presently at 7-3, won by a single run over the opposition, 10 to 9. Four out by Dorris Wolfe and a four-bagger by David Noel put the game on ice for Baptist, as they turned down Niedringhaus' leg to 6-4.

Hearts in Weird Prison Game

Mercer String Ended by Troy; Mitchell, Hearts Also Beaten

Yesterday was a rough day for local Inter-City League baseball teams.

Mercer lost its first game of the season, 14-10 at Troy. Mitchell, Crabtree, Greg Patterson and Fred Hoffman gave Mercer a 3-0 first-inning lead.

Harold Tanksley singled to add another run.

Wayne Gavillet's hitting helped up and by the sixth inning he had surrendered only one run; Mercer piled on four more in the seventh, when three base runners were stranded.

Troy blasted out five more runs in the seventh off Thompson, scoring included two successive singles, a triple, another single, double, walk and another single. Still not subdued, Mercer came back with two in its eighth. Hoffman and Tanksley singled, Larry Ripka walked, Thompson scored. Hoffman by hitting into a fielder's choice and Johannmeier's sacrifice fly scored Tanksley.

Mercer was down now by only one, but Thompson was shelved by Don Takacs' three-run homer in Troy's eighth. It proved too much to overcome and Mercer lost its first game of the year.

Mitchell Short Handed

At least four of Wendell Corey's front line were absent in the game at Mitchell, forcing both Corey and his coach, Harry Brecher, into action.

Mitchell's big stick department was headed up by Jim Frazier. He hit four RBIs, scored twice and hit a homer, triple and single.

Sheet Metal Loses, Still Heads League

Gary Rideout's homer with two on in the seventh led to MK Printing's 13-1 come-from-behind upset of GC Sheet Metal in High School League action at Wilson Park Thursday night.

Bill Mark homered for Sheet Metal and Jim Rains and Jim Hackett had triples for the losers.

With one game for each team remaining on the schedule, the standings are: GC Sheet Metal 6-2, Trailers 5-3, ROCA 3-4, MK Printing 2-5.

Two Aces on Weekend

Charles A. Papp, 2330 Hodges Avenue, had a hole-in-one on the 145-yard No. 4 at Westlake Country club in Jerseyville yesterday, witnessed by John Konak of Madison, and St. Chester Davis aced a shot on the 165-yard No. 2 at the Army Depot course yesterday. Davis' shot was witnessed by Lt. Col. Harold Fortis, First Sgt. Billy Stokes and Staff Sgt. Robert Hicks.

Mathews Loses Again

To Barnes Team, 2-0

Mathews Chevrolet, hoping for revenge against Barnes Store of Springfield, which defeated the local team in the July 4 tourney at Wilson Park, journeyed to Springfield, Mo., over the weekend.

Hoping to play two games Saturday, the softballers watched as both contests were washed away. In the only game played at Springfield, yesterday, Barnes won 2-0 as Art Charles relinquished only one hit, to Mathews' manager Leon Chippell. Barnes' two hits accounting for the runs, while all of the scorers' variety. Ray Hoffman pitched for Mathews.

Credit Union Wins 9-5

Scoring four of its runs in the eighth inning, Granite City Steel Credit Union went on to down Belleville 9-5 in a Senior Khoury game at Caseyville yesterday.

Jim Campbell was winning pitcher. Besides striking out 11 batters, he aided his own cause with a triple. Larry Anderson also tripled for the winners.

Troy Root scored three times and hit two singles and a double. Joe Fanning singled and hit a sacrifice fly to drive in two runs.

Dave Sparks, playing with a bad leg, had two singles and one RBI.

Root's single, Frazier's triple

and Fanning's safety put Mitchell ahead 2-0 in the first. Harper got two runs in the second and two in the third off John Corrie before Mitchell came back with a pair in the third when Frazier's homer followed Root's second single. Mitchell tied it 5-5 in the fifth.

Harper got single runs off Corrie

in the sixth and seventh; he yielded a double in each inning. Dave Sparks' second single had tied Mitchell's run in the fifth.

The score was 7-5 in Harper's favor as the ninth inning got under way.

A single, home run, two of the six walks Corrie had surrendered thus far, and a single and double spelled Mitchell's doom as six runs crossed the plate before reliever Larry Corey put out the fire.

After Brecker, batting for Corey in the ninth, gained first on an overthrow, Root doubled, Frazier singled and Sparks hit a fly to score Root. But Mitchell could only score the two runs.

Hearts in Close Contest

Chuck Hasenstul's homer greeted Hearts-Library Home's Steve Leik as the Wilson Park game got under way but Jim Rains' double and Roy Logan's single quickly evened the score.

A pair of singles and a double put Collinsville ahead 2-1 in the fifth. A single by Ron Reiss, who advanced when Leik attempted to stretch his hit to a double, set up Bob Ketrner's sacrifice fly which evened the score again in the last of the fifth.

In the eighth, a single, stolen base, fielder's choice and double netted Collinsville one run, but it decided the game. Leik issued two walks and then made the last two hitters pop up as Collinsville led the bases loaded.

Collinsville's ace, Eddie Albrecht, struck out seven. Only Jim Rains managed two hits off him.

Wild Prison Game

It had been a difficult story

at Menard the day before.

Hearts - Library Home scored ahead 3-1 in the fourth. They surrendered three more runs in the sixth and three in the seventh but bounced back with three in their eighth and two in the top of the ninth to lead 5-7.

Then began probably the most weird inning ever to befall a ball team, inside or outside prison walls.

With one out, the Menard Cubs pushed across a tying run on a hit and an error. Ron Reiss was set to deliver a pitch with a two-balls-one-strike count when time was called. Reiss delivered the pitch. The umpire called it a strike, and a dispute ensued.

The Cubs' hitter at the moment

argued that time had been called prior to the pitch. The umpire, second one in a contest that had already seen one quit and leave the game, insisted the count was two and two.

The Cub manager intervened to no avail. The umpire stood his ground and kicked the batter out of the game — it was the prison team's last eligible player, and the game was over.

Was it a 9-0 forfeit? Or an 8-8

tie? Or did the game revert to the eighth inning, when Hearts-Library Home trailed 7-0?

In other league action yesterday, East St. Louis, Polish-American beat Warville 8-3 and Pocahontas shut out East Alton 3-0.

Dale Landsman

In the old-time westerns you could always tell the good guys from the bad guys. On our highway today, it couldn't matter less. Because even the best of drivers get involved in a take a guy like Dale Landsman. He's never been in an accident. Never breaks a law. Yet, his first name is Dale. He's a real live, honest, hardworking, every second of every minute you're behind the wheel. Out on the highway, that means protecting yourself by staying well to the right. And warning any oncoming driver if he strays over into your lane. You won't end up on the receiving end of their mistakes or sudden moves. You can depend on it.

Nameoki Loop All-Star Teams Suffer Defeats

Nameoki-Pontoon Little League All-Stars played host to a Marion, Ill., little league all-star team Friday night and took a 9-2 beating.
The Major division contest found the Marion pitcher mowing down 15 batters, walking no one and allowing only three hits.
Tommy Mitchell of Nameoki-Pontoon slugged a home run in the second inning with one mate aboard to account for his team's only runs.

At Benton, Ill., another Nameoki-Pontoon all-star team of senior age players had no better luck in another Friday night game. The host Benton all-star team won 3-1.
Pitcher Larry Bloomquist was his own worst enemy, although he struck out 11 batters and allowed only six hits; he gave up 10 bases on balls.

During the seven-inning contest, Jim Rollins and Terry Mercer were the only members of the losing squad to hit safely. Both hit doubles—Rollins in the third and Mercer in the fourth inning.
Nameoki-Pontoon sent 26 to the batter's box, five more than the minimum total of 21 for a perfect game.

TWO CORE PICKETS march around Dunbar school in North Venice today to protest alleged discrimination in employment of workers on the school addition. At left, in rear, is Rev. Oscar Elridge, spokesman for CORE. The other picket declined to give his name.

CORE Picket Line Set Up at Dunbar School Project

A two-man CORE picket line was established at the new Dunbar school addition in North Venice this morning in protest of alleged discrimination by contractors and unions in hiring workers for the $155,899 school building project.

Rev. Oscar S. Elridge, pastor of the Thomas Chapel, C.M.E. Church at Madison, spokesman for the Committee on Racial Equality and one of the pickets, said the picketing is intended to call attention to the fact that no Negroes are employed on the project.

The other picket declined to give his name. He said to identify him only as "CORE."

Both carried signs: "CORE—Help us maintain job security," and "CORE—asks for jobs that we may have the right to earn our daily bread." Another sign read: "AFL-CIO Craft unions refuse Negroes Jobs."

Elridge said he knows of only one Negro employed on the job and "that was at the beginning of the construction." He said he understands that employee was in laying concrete forms and then was laid off.

The school is being built for the Madison school district, but the new addition lies in the city of Venice. Work on the building has not been halted.

"We plan to take the matter to the Federal government if we have to," Elridge said. "We don't know what the government can do for us, but we intend to find out."

Elridge said he knows of only one Negro employed on the job and "that was at the beginning of the construction." He said he understands that employee was in laying concrete forms and then was laid off.

Leo Wolf whose contracting firm holds the main contract for the school job said that there is no question of discrimination involved.

Wolf said, "We hired a Negro carpenter at one time, but his work was finished."

Wolf added, "We hire Negroes whenever we can," but actually the main labor force is furnished by the unions working for subcontractors.

The Dunbar project is expected to be completed in about a month.

Attorney General Issues Opinions On 4 Questions

Atty. Gen. William G. Clark today issued a series of four legal opinions involving Illinois and county governments.

The Illinois Commerce Commission's general order No. 172, relating to customers' duty for utility services, is implicitly repealed by the Uniform Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act to the extent that the rule is inconsistent with the act, he advised Joseph E. Knight, director of the Department of Financial Institutions.

When an election precinct is divided, Clark held that the precinct committee of the former precinct retains his voting strength as long as he has been no division of the precinct. New committees would be chosen at the next primary election.

The vacancy in the office of recorder of deeds in Will county, caused by the death of the recorder last June 27, will be filled at the next general election after the general election of 1966.

Meantime, the chief deputy of the recorder of deeds becomes acting recorder until the vacancy is filled by appointment by the county board, Clark's opinion advised State's Atty. George E. Sunmister of Will county.

The Illinois Local Governmental Law Enforcement Officers Training Board must secure its necessary clerical and technical employees from eligible lists furnished by the director of the Illinois Department of Personnel, the attorney general held.

Granite City's New Sewage Treatment Plant Functioning Perfectly—11 Truckloads of Sludge Daily

HUGE COIL SPRING FILTERS with one in operation drop sludge onto conveyor belt that carries it to a waiting truck. The vehicle, with a water-tight body, hauls the sludge to the city dump. The filter in the foreground was not in operation. Checking the filter is Richard Disney.

Zacky is making an inspection. The plant buildings and settling basins are only a short distance from the city's pumping station which is at the Army Depot.

GRIT CHAMBER at the sewage treatment plant that removes heavy solids from sewage. A temporary breakdown was being corrected when this photo was taken. A large piece of plywood had to be removed from the sewers.

PRIMARY SETTLING TANKS with traveling bridges that move on tracks to skim floating oils and other wastes from sewage. The city's treatment plant has four such 120,000-gallon basins.

45,000,000-Gallon-a-Day Peak Capacity at Sewage Plant

Granite City's $1,270,000 sewage treatment plant, located on a city-owned tract at the Army Depot, is currently operating at a 20,000,000-gallon a day capacity, but it can handle up to 45,000,000 gallons.

The plant has been tested completely and is functioning smoothly, according to the superintendent, John Hildebrand, and the design engineer, Edward Juneau of the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab.

Presently, the plant is being operated on an eight-hour day, but could be stepped up to an around-the-clock basis. Hildebrand is being aided by a 10-man staff, and the operation cost for the first year has been estimated at $160,922, of which $29,500 is to be spent for treatment chemicals. The plant has its own laboratory to test the sewage. Through testing, the most economical method of treatment can be determined. "This will prove a great saving to the city," Hildebrand said.

In the treatment of sewage, 98 to 99% of solids are removed along with 40 to 45% of suspended solids. This meets the primary treatment requirements set forth by the federal government.

Facilities at the Depot site include four huge primary settling basins as well as a grit chamber for removal of solids and oils. The final filtering system with two coil spring filters of 200 square feet capacity each to handle the sludge, which is then hauled by water-tight trucks to the city dump for disposal.

At present, about 11 or 12

truckloads a day are hauled away.

Construction of the plant was financed through a $1,225,000 revenue bond issue and $298,000 in grants of federal tax funds.

The bond payments and operating costs are to be handled through service charges amounting to 90 cents a month per household and monthly charges to businesses and industries based on volume of sewage flow and types of pollution.

First bills are scheduled to be mailed late in August.

Billing of the 90-cent monthly charge—which is the lowest in the area—will be on a quarterly basis—$2.70—with the payments to be made at the city hall. The payments are expected to continue for the life of the $1,225,000 revenue bond issue, which is 30 years.

Also to be paid from the 90-cent charge is the operating and maintenance costs of the treatment plant.

The treatment plant has been in operation for about two weeks. The city originally was notified to abate pollution of the Mississippi River and provide sewage treatment facilities by Dec. 31, 1961.

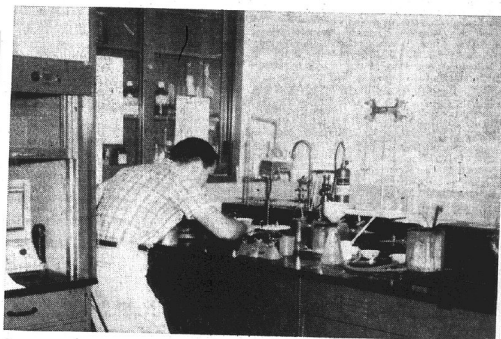

While the pollution abatement has been 4½ years late in coming, Granite City still is ahead of similar abatement orders issued to other nearby areas which are being served by the East Side Levee & Sanitary District.

Also, the city of St. Louis has yet to undertake its abatement program.

Weather is Still Farm Problem; U. S. Aid Sought

Weather continued to be the chief concern of Madison county farmers during the past week, it was reported by Truman W. May, county farm adviser.

On Friday, Madison county was included in a list of 51 counties in southern Illinois for which federal drought aid will be sought under recommendations submitted to Gov. Kerner by the State Disaster committee.

May pointed out that scattered showers helped some areas, and there was one rain of two inches in the northern part of the county, but none at all farther south. "Cooler temperatures helped the corn and soybeans, but all fields need a lot more rain. The only good crop in the county this year is the wheat, which probably set a new record for average yield per acre," May said.

Checks of a number of corn fields indicate that much more damage was caused by corn borers than anticipated. It appears now that many farmers will have to use control measures in 1967 to prevent more losses.

Most of the state from here south will have three generations of the borers this year.

There have been some questions about the effect of the hot weather on insects. The heat has probably hurt the crops more than the bugs. However, a stage of hot weather can cause insects to do strange things, say the entomologists.

To escape the heat and sun, some species may seek shelter in places where they normally would not be, so you can expect to find a few insects in places where you would not expect them.

Some species may have been decreased by the heat, but many of our worst bugs, like grasshoppers, have had their body processes speeded up. This adds a few extra generations to the normal number and increases the insect problem. Any unfavorable growing conditions for crops, especially drought, tend to accentuate the damage caused by insects.

State Fair to Spotlight 'Year of the Horse'

To the Chinese this is the Year of the Horse. At the Illinois State Fair this year, many of the exhibits in previous years, the spotlight will be turned on the horse.

Billed as the nation's largest livestock exposition, the 10-day fair opening Friday, Aug. 12, for the 14th time, will sponsor competition for more than 200 head of prize horseflesh.

The richest and most famous of the exposition's horse events is the State Fair National Championship Horse Show, formerly known as the "Society of Horse Show."

It is the largest show of its kind, both in number of entries—300 head—and in prize money, more than $60,000.

Entered in this year's horse show will be superior stock from more than 30 states and Canada.

$367 Million Tourism Development Planned

A ten-year, $367 million tourism-recreation "project" program has been recommended for southern Illinois in a report presented at the Southern Illinois Tourism Investment Conference Friday at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

The program, according to a 300-page report by Checchi & Co. of Washington, D. C., should help the region expand its annual tourism-recreation business from $25 million to $123 million.

The report outlines a plan of organization and suggests probable financial parameters. It recommends initial development be concentrated in present growth centers at Carbondale, Marion and Carlyle lake.

Early development also was recommended for a recreation corridor, tentatively named the George Rogers Clark recreation way, extending through the Shawnee Hills, and for six recreation core areas.

Development funds could come from private investment and normal commercial loans ($77 million), additional commercial loans guaranteed by a tourism and recreation guarantee authority ($15 million), revenue bonds and loans from non-commercial sources ($32 million), additional equity induced by commercial and non-commercial loans and revenue bonds ($3 million), state government ($40 million) and federal government ($198 million).

NLRB Hearing Aug. 22 On Young Metal Row

Salvatore Coentino, regional director for the 14th Region of the National Labor Relations Board, announced today that a hearing will be conducted at the board's regional office in St. Louis on Aug. 22, on a complaint alleging that Young Metal Products Co. discriminated against its employees by promulgating and maintaining a rule which discriminatorily prohibits employees from engaging in union solicitation during nonwork time in any area of the plant.

The National Labor Relations Act guarantees to employees the right to engage in union activities free from any coercion.

The hearing will be held before a trial examiner of the National Labor Relations Board who will come from Washington, D. C. and who will issue a decision and make recommendations to the National Labor Relations Board.

Driving Charge Filed Randy Scrum, 1657 Second street, Madison, was arrested on a charge of carless driving at 20th street and Madison avenue at 3:45 a.m. Friday. He was summoned for a hearing by Aug. 5.

An Illinois Air Purity Viewpoint

New Plants—This County Or Columbia Bottoms?

(First of six articles based on a study by the American Association of Air Pollution Engineers, Inc., and the Illinois Air Pollution Control Board, which is now studying the feasibility of a new plant in the Columbia Bottoms area.)

On the subject of the application of air pollution control considerations in land use zoning, the Interstate Air Pollution Study report is woven throughout with the philosophy that air pollution problems relating to industrial sources are best handled by simply zoning industrial areas, or new industries out of the area, thus preventing any additional air pollution problems.

While the legal basis of land use zoning is not certainly provided for the orderly assignment of land use between the various categories of residential, commercial, business and industry, the use of such zoning ordinances as instruments to control industrial development, we believe, is of doubtful legal basis.

The air pollution aspect of any given industry should always be a consideration in land use zoning, but local zoning commissions will not be, comparatively effective against the three-level air pollution control structure which has been proposed.

Madison County State Out. The report section, Regulation XV, which begins on page 212, entitled "Additional Air Quality Control Measures May Be Required when Sources are Located in a Small Land Area," presumes to limit industrial development of any circular area with a diameter of two miles from which the sum of the air pollution emissions from major sources would exceed 200 tons per year, or 500 tons per year.

These numerical limitations have not been arbitrarily arrived at, but when table 7, page 212, "Existing Allowable Annual Planned Emissions of Particulates" is studied, it is interesting to note that the only political subdivision of the St. Louis metropolitan area which would be forbidden further industrial development—because the "allowable emissions" already exceed the "planned emissions"—would be that section of Madison county which lies in the so-called "Air Pollution Basin."

The effect of this arbitrarily prescribed table and Regulation XV would be that a future heavy manufacturing process could be constructed in Ladue, Webster Groves or Columbia Bottoms but not in Madison county. Another odd feature of this is that such a manufacturing process could be constructed in a few hundred feet from an existing manufacturing process so long as it crossed the line into the next political subdivision. Obviously this is not a realistic approach.

However desirable it may seem to St. Louis city and county officials to limit industrial development in Madison county and locate such future heavy plants in Columbia Bottoms or outlying St. Louis county locations, the realistic facts are that the 3000 acres of prime industrial land already have been set aside in Madison county for the future growth of what will very probably become one of the most vigorous and diverse manufacturing centers in this country.

While we certainly hope that much of this expected industrial development will be of the light industry metal fabrication, research-oriented variety, it is probable that the East Side will remain the heavy industrial center of the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Favor Air-Cleaning Devices

We will work earnestly to insure that new heavy industrial development will be controlled with the most efficient air-cleaning devices which are technologically and economically possible. At the same time, we suggest that such industries be scattered about the St. Louis metropolitan area to satisfy an arbitrarily arrived-at dust loading scale.

The Manufacturers' Association of the Tri-County area, the major heavy manufacturers of Granite City, Madison and Springfield, with headquarters in Granite City, is a charter member of the St. Louis East Side Industrial Waste Council.

Our members have been active in the Waste Council's deliberations on all aspects of industrial waste control for a number of years prior to the beginning of the Interstate Air Pollution Study.

Full Cooperation Provided. Due to this Association's interest in the subject of air pollution abatement, the Association and its member companies have participated as a cooperating agency during the two-year study of the Interstate Air Pollution Study.

This Association and its member companies are interested in sound and reasonable standards to control the St. Louis metropolitan area for a number of years which can be achieved, giving due recognition to the technological and economic capability of our local economy.

This goal, of necessity, requires a diligent search for the highest quality standards which can control existing and future anticipated air pollution sources while at the same time fulfilling the technological and economic capability test.

While some over-zealous air pollution control officials may feel that they can satisfy their public craving with meaningless numerical standards, as managers of our area's heavy industry the members of this Association must go further in seeking effective control standards which can be met by our existing industrial process without unwarranted damage to our economy.

The Industrial Waste Council has made the point that the Interstate Air Pollution Study "Air Resource Management Program" is, at best, an idealistic approach, which, if enacted into law without rational consideration of the state-of-the-art technology, could be potentially disastrous to the area's whole economy.

Departure From Reality. St. Louis city and county officials, acting through the project area, have indicated on numerous occasions that they desire the cleanest possible air for the region. The fact that such commitments fall to take into account the true nature of the St. Louis metropolitan area's economy, in which the East Side is as the predominant heavy manufacturing area, producing all the heavy metal fabricating material for most of St. Louis and St. Louis county manufacturing operations.

The value of East Side employment to downtown St. Louis retail sales and to suburban county housing is too obvious to detail. (Next: Economic and technical feasibility explained.)

Year-Around Schooling Now a Reality at the College Level

Year-around schooling has long been regarded as a future certainty due to its fuller utilization of costly buildings and equipment, and the opportunity it provides faculty members for 12-month employment and earnings.

The future is fast being changed to the present by scores of colleges, including Southern Illinois University, where current enrollment totals 12,672-4194 at the Southwestern campus and 8478 at Carbondale.

The great volume of summer instruction is shown by a comparison with the regular enrollment last fall of 24,302, consisting of 7146 at SIU-SW and 17,356 at Carbondale. The aggregate summer student population is more than half of the fall enrollment, and the Southwestern figure is over 58 percent of the number reporting opening classes at the new campus in September 1965.

The admissions policy of varied academic standards for different quarters of the year undoubtedly has helped encourage summer attendance. But the current enrollment clearly demonstrates that students can be motivated to attend during the hot seasons, particularly where classrooms are air-conditioned, as at SIU-SW. And such sessions are proving beyond any doubt that the anticipated gains in economy and efficiency are real and not mere conjecture.

As more and more universities switch to the quarter system, with new students accepted in December, March and June as well as in September, greater consideration is sure to be given to similar scheduling at the high school level, where taxpayers' investment in facilities and equipment also is substantial.

Tavern Bonds Unnecessary

Granite City council elimination of tavern surety bonds, which are no longer necessary under state law, ends a requirement that was of little or no value.

All the usual laws apply to the conduct of tavern proprietors, and they are also controlled by closing hour and age regulations as well as facing the possibility of dramsoph suits if their patrons cause injury or damage.

Tavern bonds in many areas have been more of a nuisance than an asset, with pressure sometimes applied on licensees to obtain them from favored firms. Now such bonds may be on the way out all over Illinois.

Square Dancing, Okinawa Style

The Checkerboard Squares, Quad-City square dancing group, have gone international. Thanks to the efforts of Gary Greene, former local caller now serving with the Air Force in the Far East, square dance has been introduced to young residents of Okinawa and the Ryukyu Islands. This may make possible a joint Illinois-East dance jamboree at the next national convention in June 1967.

Foreign customs and traditions have long been of interest to Americans, and the Checkerboard group is demonstrating that this community has much to offer in return to distant parts of the world.

The Law Serves You

Mortgage Payment Rules Outlined

(A public service of the Tri-City and Illinois Bar Association.)

If you stand to lose your house if you fall behind in your mortgage payments?

Not necessarily. Your bank or other mortgage may bring foreclosure proceedings because of your non-payment, and your house and lot may be sold at public auction to satisfy the debt. But Illinois law bestows upon you the right to recover your property without limit of time.

Foreclosure is initiated automatically even if you fail behind in your payments.

The mortgage lender must go to court to obtain a judgment, in which case you would be notified and have an opportunity to defend yourself. Often, the court and the lender will be lenient if you give evidence of meeting your obligations.

Public Sale Order

However, it is your lender's right to cause default to result in the entire balance of your loan as due.

And the court may direct that the house and lot be sold by an officer of the court at a public sale, and that your debt be paid from the proceeds of the sale.

If the sale does not bring enough money to pay off the balance of the mortgage plus court costs, a judgment may be entered against you for the deficiency. If there is excess money, it is paid to you.

But this is not the conclusion of the matter. Illinois law provides that if a mortgage is foreclosed and a sale is held by the court, you still may redeem the property at any time within one year after the sale.

To redeem, you must pay the person who purchased the property at the sale the full amount of his purchase price plus interest at 6%.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. Even a slight difference in facts may change the result under the law.

No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney.

Immunist Won't 'Become Involved'

(This is one of the "golden rules" which John has major failings, but doesn't editorialize reaching the finals of Golden Guild Award judging of the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors. It was written by Foster M. Russell, editor of the Coburn, Ont., Sentinel Star.)

There's that fellow at the extreme left. He's a Communist. He's a socialist. He's a laborer. He's a bad guy. But his strange as it may seem, is high. He may land on the moon first.

The chap on the other side of the social spectrum is a rightist, a John Birchler.

Elsewhere on the spectrum of human affairs is the new sister, the individualist jolly fish. He waxes fat in the art he is adept in. He avoids responsibility. Outside the door of his orb hangs the sign "Don't disturb."

Science and the Quad-Cities

Electric Power From the Atom

(American Association for the Advancement of Science)

In a few years most new major power-generating plants are likely to be nuclear, says Philip Abelson, writer in Science magazine.

He notes that the nuclear power plant now abutting at Oyster Creek, N.J., is completed in the next year or two, will deliver power at cost as low as 3.6 mills per kilowatt-hour.

That was the best of the first nuclear plant whose cost is low enough that it could produce electricity competitive with today's coal-fired plants.

Abelson continues, "In 1965, after the contract for the Oyster Creek plant had been announced, other utility companies were ordered for eight major nuclear power plants, with total capacity of about 5000 megawatts. This is about one-fifth of the aggregate capacity of all the electrical

County Farmer Convention to be Held July 29th

The county convention where farmer-chosen delegates will elect farmers to fill vacancies on the Madison County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee will be held July 29 at 9 a.m. at the Farm Bureau building, 110 North Main street, Edwardsville, according to Walter Bardemeier, chairman, ASC County Committee.

The convention will be open to the public, and any person interested in observing the voting process may attend. However, only farmer-delegates to the convention may participate in the election process. Election is by secret ballot and plurality vote. After the county committee members are elected the delegates will then determine which of the regular committees will be elected as chairman and vice-chairman for the coming year.

Last year the county committee were elected for two-year terms for three, two and one year each. This year the one-year term will expire for Louis H. Ahmeyer. The nominee elected to this position will serve for a three-year term, also a nominee will have to be elected for the one-year term. In addition two alternates to the county committee will be elected for one year each.

ASC county and community committees are in charge of the local administration of such farm-action programs as the agricultural conservation program, the feed grain and wheat programs, the national wool program, commodity price-support loans and storage facility loans.

A qualified candidate for service on the ASC county committee, the chairman explained, is one who is a resident eligible to vote in one of the community elections in the county, and who meets other eligibility requirements. Eligibility to vote or hold office as a committee member is not restricted by reason of race, color, creed or national origin. Other details as to qualifications of candidates are available at the ASC county office.

Bardemeier urged all ASC farmer-delegates to be sure to attend the county convention. These farmers were automatically chosen as convention delegates when they were elected recently by their farmer-neighbors to serve as ASC community committee members for the coming year.

He was a member of Granite Lodge 877 AF and AM, the Scottish Rite Body-Valley of East St. Louis, and the First United Presbyterian Church. As a member of the church, Mr. Karrer was an elder and a singer for 35 years in the sanctuary choir.

Capt. Leslie Barco Jr. New Air Commander

Captain Leslie T. Barco Jr., a native and former resident of Granite City, has assumed the post of commander of Navy Fleet Air Wing Ten at Moffett Field, Calif., relieving Captain John W. Crowe, who has been assigned to duties in Washington.

The new Wing Commander was Assistant for Planning, Air Surface and Electronic Warfare division of the Deputy Chief of Naval Operations prior to transferring to Moffett Field.

Capt. Barco attended schools in Granite City, the University of Missouri, test pilot training and is twice a graduate of the Naval War College, having completed the Command and Staff, and the Naval Warfare courses.

David Walker of EOC Is Optimist Speaker

David Walker, assistant director, presented an outline of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

After being introduced by Dr. Raymond Troyer, Walker presented an explanation of the War on Poverty program, with specifics on how it applies to Madison county. He pointed out that the county's aim for the program is to prevent "another dependent society like that formed by public aid organizations."

The EOC officer indicated he was to break the chain of circumstances which underlies this "dependent society." His line of thoughts were essentially illustrated by the fact that $3 million is given annually by the public aid departments in this county.

"Because Madison county is rated the third highest county with family 'poverty' incomes under $3000 a year and has an employment rate at the same level, we would see any trend reducing our growing expenses as one which is greatly needed," Walker explained.

President Wilbert Triesbe, who presided over the 20 members present, announced that the Optimist members and their families will have a dinner meeting next month on Aug. 11 at the home of Donald Z. Farrington on Dunlop Lake in Edwardsville. The affair had previously been scheduled for Aug. 4.

Real Estate
Personal Property
Assessment List For
The Year 1966

Herewith is a list of real estate and personal property assessments as made by the township assessors of Venice township, Madison County, Illinois, and returned to George Musso, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship between county assessed value and the estimated full cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total local assessed value so that all such property will be assessed at its full cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extensions for 1966 taxes payable in 1967 and indicate the full fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed value as made by the local assessing officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with Section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as a public notice to the taxpayers of the county of the assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors of the aforesaid township.

Taxpayers who consider their property incorrectly assessed may appear before the assessor for review and file a complaint in writing on or before September 1, 1966, or within 60 days thereafter, otherwise provided by Section 108 of the Revenue Act.

GEORGE MUSSO, County Treasurer, Supervisor of Assessments, Madison County, Illinois.

Nearing Deadline

Another Budget Meeting Tonight for GC Council

Granite City's $2,330,352 budget is to get final treatment this week. The unknown factor is whether all details can be worked out in one night.

A regular meeting of the council is to be held at 8 o'clock this evening, but a major stumbling block may be the $40,000 put into the budget last week to give pay increases to the city's 134 employees.

The council could proceed with budget adoption tonight and then knock out the pay increases at a later date. Alderman Thompson, chairman of the Personnel Committee, said last week he would present a breakdown to-night.

Some disagreement is anticipated since the committee is to propose percentage increases of 3 to 7% based on years of service.
